

High Society: The film David Neville takes Rosie Callum to on their first date. Watch it on Youtube for £2.49. Click photo

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F15EPEzukNQ>

The Hofner acoustic. Eric Callum's first guitar - lucky boy. (click photo for demonstration) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p5KZ-ohaApc>

The Hofner Club 150 - Eric's first electric guitar - even luckier boy. John Lennon would go on to play the same model. (Click photo for demonstration)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EjOXBeJSEdo>

Bert Weedon, 'the man who taught the world to play guitar' - well, Eric Clapton, Hank Marvin and Mark Knopfler etc. all learned from the master, by using this book. (click the picture for more) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QNQG8zQTyHI>

The legendary 21's coffee bar, widely held to be the birthplace of British rock and roll. Tommy Steele, Cliff and the Shadows, all got their initial break here. (click the photo for more) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nsRHHcq1P8>

The excellent Dr Death aka Paul Lincoln, co-owner of the 21's coffee bar with another wrestler 'Rebel' Ray Hunter. DS Frank Lesser regularly works for Paul Lincoln Promotions, his identity concealed by a mask and the name The Black Phantom. (click the photo for more) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q_hXttiqJU

While their husbands and boyfriends were watching or participating in wrestling matches, their wives, sisters and girlfriends would amuse themselves by having 'Amami Nights' - curling their hair with a pungent smelling setting lotion. (click for demonstration) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gLF-nXsQqiU>

The music being played on the wireless in 1958 was becoming an alien sound to Jack. His preference was for 'real' singers and musicians like Les Paul and Mary Ford, and then Lonnie Donegan came along and started the skiffle craze and the musical landscape changed forever. (click the picture for more)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cFKLwJzMols>

The man himself - the king of skiffle, Lonnie Donegan. He started as a banjo player in the Chris Barber jazz band, but was given a spot in the show to play 'skiffle' music. Soon he had recorded 'Rock Island Line' and left Barber for a much more lucrative solo career, play his own style of music. (click the photo for more)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fcqrA5Ep_Os

Probably the best British rock and roll album ever made. This plays a significant role in the fourth Jack Callum Mystery - but more of that later...(click the album cover for more) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dISBHClE1qM>

And finally, Tottenham Hotspur Football Club, Jack's beloved Spurs. To escape excesses of the crimes he's called upon to solve, Jack seeks rest and relaxation by the attending home matches whenever he can...which is far less than he would like.(click the cockerel for more) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aAd28wq57KA>